Understreg følelserne i teksten.

When the judges told Thomas that he won the competition, he felt both happy and proud. He was so excited and surprised. He could hear his friends and family cheering, which made him a little embarrassed. Thomas was a hardworking boy, who was always determined. He wanted to satisfy everyone, and that was why people liked him. Some girls even fell in love with him, and that made him feel nervous whenever they were around. However, he felt comfortable with his best friend, Michael. They enjoyed spending time together.
