Thanksgiving is a federal holiday celebrated in the United States. Thanksgiving is also celebrated in other countries such as Canada. Traditionally, this holiday celebrates the harvest and the preceding year. In the United States, Thanksgiving is celebrated on the fourth Thursday of November.

History

The American tradition of Thanksgiving is rooted in English traditions. The custom of giving thanks for the harvest is, however, an old, worldwide tradition. When the Pilgrims and Puritans emigrated from England in the 1620s and 1630s, they carried the tradition of Thanksgiving with them to New England. The Pilgrims gave thanks to their first generous harvest in Plymouth Rock in October 1621. This was the first Thanksgiving, and it was celebrated for three days.

Traditional celebrations include charity, giving thanks to God, parades, Thanksgiving dinner with friends and family, etc.

The Thanksgiving meal usually consists of turkey as the main dish and stuffing, cranberry sauce, mashed potatoes, and vegetables as side dishes. Various pies, such as pumpkin pie and pecan pie, are usually served for dessert.
